HOOD'S WHIMS AND ODDITIES. Comic illustrations. 1 vol. large 12mo. Cloth. 56c.

Of all the humorists, Hood was the most practical. There is hardly a verse in which some touches of heart, or some play of fancy, did not beckon the laughing reader into far other worlds than the jester's.—London Athenaeum.

Thomas Hood, a most admirable fellow, with a warm heart, a sound head, a humor quaint and original, a disposition amiable and facetious, and a boon companion; a man of taste, feeling, and genius.—Blackwood.

SCIENCE VS. SPIRITUALISM. A treatise on Turning Tables, the Supernatural in general and Spirits.
Translated from the French of "Count Agenor de Gasparin," with an Introduction by Rev. ROBERT BAIRD, D. D. Two large 12mo. vols. 940 pp. Price, $2 50.

The Journal of Commerce says: "It saps the very foundations of Spiritualism, wholly depriving it of the Supernatural element which gives it its life."

"The treatise is a very learned and able one, and yet popular in style."—N. Y. Evangelist.

LONDON: ITS LITERARY AND HISTORICAL CURIOSITIES. By F. Saunders, author of "Salad for the Solitary," etc. With numerous engravings.
12mo. Cloth. 75c.

There is no work written, to our knowledge, which furnishes a more authentic introduction to the heart of the English capital, than this attractive volume.—Tribune.

ROBINSON CRUSOE. With a Biographical Account of Defoe. 1 vol. 12mo. Illustrated with 12 characteristic engravings. Cloth. $1.00.

Kiggins and Kellogg's Publications.

MARCH

A pleasant but cool day.
The baby has been dull
all day with a bad cold
in her head. & has coughed some. Anne has been in twice. Phoebe Anne, once.

I wrote a long letter to the children in the eve.
I was away most of the eve.

Dear all, and all myself. I am very well & comfortable &
have a great deal of time now. We had a very bad cold
but we have a bad cold
now. And dad had a very bad cold a few days ago.

A bright pleasant morn.
The baby had a very comfortable night, and seemed much better.

Finished my letter & sent
it to the P.O.

Ripped the coat & brushed
it, and went in to see
Anne in the forenoon.

Anne came about two & kept house for me to go to Cousin Love's with Paul & Madison, on acct. of jacket and trousers. Then u
to Grandfather's & the Office,
where J. having Buchanan
took us in a carriage &
we had a short ride.
Baby had a nap on the floor.

Carrie Swift took tea with us.
